This interactive workshop is designed to support organisations in effectively managing their finance processes. A key, critical aspect of maintaining effective organisational services is the ability to appropriately, safely and with contracted agreement, manage finance. Operational abilities are dependent on sound financial acumen; subsequently, this workshop is devised to aid those individuals who are placed in areas of financial responsibility. General Practice finance is complicated and complex, so requires good, sound knowledge and process.

Aims:

In this workshop delegates will be introduced to:

- How General Practice organisations financial processes work
- The various funding streams relevant to General Practice activity
- General Practice relevant contracts and their financial aspects
- Receipt and management of commissioner statements
- Effective management of reimbursements
- The relevance of 'Network / Cluster' contracts and their relation to funding
- Platforms that support efficient, safe and assured financial management
- Private income and it's relationship to current relevant contracts
- Accountant relationships and modern financial processes.

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of the workshop participants will:

- Have clearer understanding of the General Practice finance processes, risks and requirements
- Have the ability to develop relevant processes that will mitigate risks and support the development of effective financial processes
- Have gained greater understanding of the various associated contracted payments relevant to General Practice
- Have gained greater confidence in a key area of General Practice risk and reward.
