Trainer Information

Claire Sharp is the Senior Training Officer at Children in Wales the leading Child Rights charity in Wales. Claire has worked with children and young people, in the voluntary and statutory sector, for over twenty years. Claire spent many years working in the field of domestic abuse, directly supporting children and young people in refugees and in the community, before moving on to manage Children's Services nationally at Welsh Women's Aid. She has an ongoing interest in encouraging education and learning, in its broadest sense, having worked both as a primary teacher and in the supervision and assessment of student social workers in child and family teams. Claire is passionate about promoting children's rights and ensuring that practitioners in all sectors listen to the children that they are supporting and give children a voice in decisions about their care
